Naomi	F1	Naomi is our star of the week this week for demonstrating fantastic independence when getting herself changed for P.E. Even when she finds it difficult, she continues to persevere before asking an adult for help. Well done Naomi.								 Perseverance Independence
Jasmine	F2 F2PS	Jasmine has been persevering in her phonics sessions this week. She has shown such determination with her reading, trying hard to segment and blend cvc words. Well done Jasmine.								 Perseverance
Alyssa	F2 FP	Alyssa is always so friendly and kind to her friends. This week she spotted that a friend was upset and so Alyssa encouraged her friend to play a game with her. They made up a game together using items that they found in the role-play area. Throughout their play, Alyssa kept checking on her friend to see how she was feeling. Well done Alyssa, what a lovely friend you are.								 Teamwork
George–Martin	Yr 1 1S	George has shown great perseverance during maths and English this week. He has been on gold every day this week due to his great, hardworking attitude. You can really see the improvement in his work because of his perseverance. Keep it up!								 Perseverance
Jennifer	Yr 1 1R	Jennifer has shown a positive attitude towards her phonics this week. She has shown good listening skills and determination even when she was finding the learning a challenge. Well done and keep it up.								 Perseverance
Rabia & Vedanth	Yr 2 2A	This week in maths, they listened to each other’s ideas and shared the workload to solve multiplication problems. Then they felt confident enough to tackle division and they worked incredibly hard to show their working out. Well done guys!								 Teamwork
Eric & Alice	Yr 2 2W	Eric and Alice showcased their amazing teamwork skills this week by solving a Maths challenge question. While some of their classmates had already given up, they showed great resilience and with a bit of trial and error, they were able to produce the concrete proof needed to convince me that their thinking was correct. Throughout this, they constantly asked each other for their ideas and talked about their next step. It was wonderful to watch such an amazing display of mutual respect and teamwork!								 Teamwork
Lucie	Yr 3 3W	Lucie deserves star of the week for her mature ability on being able to reflect on her learning. She listens and contributes well in all lessons, making valuable contributions to class discussions encouraging the rest of the class to reflect on their own ideas and learning.								 Reflection
Annalice	Yr 3 3A	3A have been spending a lot of time learning new vocabulary and adding them to interesting sentences. Annalice impressed the whole class by taking complicated phrases and altering the tense and subject to suit her sentence. She was able to complete these excellent sentences without any support from an adult or from her peers showing her fantastic independence skills.								 Independence
Malikai	Yr 4 4P	This week Malikai has been trying really hard with rounding numbers to the nearest 10 and 100. He has found it challenging but he has kept going and has now cracked it. Well done Malikai.								 Perseverance
Aden	Yr 5 5M	Aden gets star of the week this week for perseverance and independence. Although he doesn’t always find Maths easy, he’s worked really hard this week to order and compare decimals and got them all right without any adult support! Mrs Haden was especially proud!								 Perseverance
Anthony, Hathami, Mya and Timmy	Yr 6 6R	These 4 children really impressed the whole class with their mature attitude towards the elections for school council. I was incredibly proud of the way they conducted themselves during the Year 6 hustings.								 Independence Reflection
