Viaan	F1	Viaan deserves star of the week for his fantastic efforts at being independent. He has been trying really hard to do things for himself, both at home and at school. Well done Viaan.									 Independence
Samuel	FS2/FP	Samuel has shown an enthusiastic approach to his learning this week. He was keen to demonstrate the new writing skills that he has acquired by choosing to do an activity at the writing table. He wrote some fantastic words relating to fireworks. Well done Samuel!.									 Perseverance
Zehra	FS2/LS	Since starting at Highwood, Zehra has shown such enthusiasm towards her learning. In learning zone she loves to explore all of the exciting activities, especially the messy play opportunities.									 Curiosity
Karolina	Yr 1	Karolina has shown great creativity in her homework. She made a beautiful plate of food showing what a healthy balanced meal looks like and even wrote an explanation about her work! Keep up the good learning.									 Creativity
Ava	Yr 1 1R	Ava has shown great perseverance in maths last week. She tried hard with her cold task and was able to problem solve whilst working independently.									 Perseverance
Ali	Yr 2 2A	This week we have been composing Bonfire Night poetry and Ali has injected so much feeling and personality into his poem. He used Enid Blyton's poems expertly to help him write his own free verse with lines such as "Oh Bonfire Bonfire you are a lovely thing, you shine in the night sky and your heart is red". Amazing effort Ali!									 Creativity
Arya	Yr 2 2W	Arya has come back from the half term break with renewed vigour and she has had a fantastic week! Not only is she far more focused, she has made better word choices and articulated her thoughts in a well-structured way. During Maths, she was able to remember what we learnt last half term and apply those skills to her Cold Task, meaning that she was able to complete it with ease. I am very proud of you, Arya!									 Reflection
Somaya	Yr 3 3W	Somaya has tried her hardest this week in maths lessons. She has picked up the new column method quickly and persevered to answer problem solving questions using this new method. Excellent learning Somaya!									 Perseverance
All of 3A	Yr 3 3A	This week 3A visited Blue Coats and learned how to build fires and shelters made from natural materials. They had to collect fire wood from around the area and break it into the correct sized pieces before setting light to it and huddling around it for warmth. They created shelters from logs, sticks and muddy moss that they found in the woodlands. As well as creating a basic survival shelter, each team added creature comforts such as chairs, clothes lines, carpets and coat hooks. I was incredibly impressed with their creativity and perseverance throughout the day and they should be very proud of themselves.									 Perseverance
Sienna	Yr 4 4P	Sienna found counting backwards through to zero very tricky this week but after persevering and using a number line, she was able to count beyond 0 and answer the new questions Mr Pearce threw at her: well done Sienna: Mr Pearce is VERY PROUD of you!									 Perseverance
Khabab	Yr 5 5M	Khabab gets star of the week this week for continual perseverance! No matter what he does he has a brilliant attitude, perseveres through the biggest challenges and is a great role model for everyone around him.									 Perseverance
Falak, Haseeb, Timmy & Hathami	Yr 6 6R	They have worked perfectly together to finish a project about the Industrial Revolution. Therefore, all four of them are stars of the week. Great teamwork.									 Teamwork
