Theo	F1	Theo is our star of the week this week for showing great curiosity when learning about Chinese New Year. He has been asking lots of questions about the festival and being confident to make comments about what he has learnt during group time. Well done Theo.									 Curiosity
Charlie	F2 PS	We are so proud of Charlie this week. He has been working extremely hard when writing his name and forming his letters. This is a skill that Charlie finds hard but nevertheless, he has shown independence in this tricky skill.									 Independence
Rehman	F2 FP	Rehman has only been with us for a few weeks, but he has settled quickly into life at Highwood. He has shown great perseverance by learning most phase 2 phonics and he is applying them when writing words. He is also able to say some words and phrases in English. Well done Rehman!									 Perseverance
Alyan	Yr 1 1R	Alyan has shown great perseverance in maths this week. He was confident to attempt tasks on his own before asking for help. He listened carefully to help given before completing his purple pen reflection time. Well done and keep it up!									 Perseverance
Pranav	Yr 1 1S	Pranav has shown great curiosity this week in English. We have been exploring different adjectives to describe feelings. Pranav has been very curious about all the different adjectives he could use and wanting to know as many as he can. I can wait to see him put his new vocabulary into his writing!									 Curiosity
Freya	Yr 2 2W	Freya because she has been trying really hard with her Cinderella story this week. She has really challenged herself to use interesting adjectives and to make sure that she is reading her story back to herself. She has shown great perseverance in trying to improve her work. Well done Freya and keep it up!									 Perseverance
Lennon	Yr 2 2A	Miss Amor has been extremely impressed with Lennon's independence in both maths and English this week. He has taken tremendous pride in his own work to ensure it is completed to his highest standard and he has worked confidently and conscientiously to reach the further extension stage in maths. Keep it up Lennon!									 Independence
Amarah	Yr 3 3W	Amarah has tried hard this week to reflect on her learning by taking her time when completing writing activities. Keep it up!									 Reflection
Sibi	Yr 3 3A	This week Sibi has impressed the adults working with him by writing a fantastically creative character description all about a hoodie wearing rabbit with a professional tie. He used ideas from his independent reading to create unique and interesting sentences that showed the reader how the character was feeling as well as what they looked like.									 Creativity
Holly	Yr 4 4P	Holly gave an amazing answer following the APE model, using her success criteria today and it was awesome! Well done Holly!									 Independence
Hollie-May	Yr 5 5M	Star of the Week goes to Hollie-May for her continuous perseverance when it comes to writing. She has made excellent progress since the beginning of the year and even used a semi colon in the right place yesterday!									 Perseverance
Krzysztof	Yr 6 6R	Krzysztof has been working hard to improve his reading this year. He is setting an excellent example to the rest of the class by reading at home every night. He has completed an impressive 5 quizzes already this term.									 Perseverance
