Leo	F1	Leo has got star of the week for showing fantastic independence and perseverance. This week he showed the adults that he was able to put his socks and shoes on by himself without any help at all. Even though he found this really difficult, he gave it a go and was able to do it. Well done Leo!								 Independence  Perseverance
Mohammed	F2 LPLS	We are so proud of Mohammed this week. He has been working super hard in his phonics group with Miss Walker. As a result, we have seen a HUGE improvement in his segmenting and blending. He can now write and read CVC words independently. Well done Mohammed, keep it up!								 Independence
Aadhya	F2 FP	Aadhya amazed us all with her wonderful creativity this week. During learning zone, she chose to write her own story which was filled with lots of storytelling language. We were so proud of her!								 Independence  Creativity
Stevie	Yr 1 1R	Stevie has really persevered with his Maths this week and is showing much more independence when tackling fractions. He has shown us a good attitude towards his learning – well done.								 Perseverance
Robbie	Yr 1 1S	Robbie has a perseverance award this week. He has really worked hard in English to keep going when writing his report comment. He stayed focused and tried very hard to use his best writing, leave finger spaces, use capital letters and full stops. He did really well and we are all very proud of him. Keep it up!								 Perseverance
Alex	Yr 2 2W	Alex has got off to a flying start this half term. He has reflected on his target to write more and begin his tasks immediately. By procrastinating less, he has completed almost all of his tasks within the allotted time. Way to go, Alex! It has been wonderful to see you so happy in class.								 Perseverance  Reflection
Inaaya	Yr 2 2A	Inaaya has perfectly embodied the learning behaviour of independence this week. No matter what the task, she has committed herself 100% and has tried her best throughout. She topped off the week by making a wonderfully creative clay pot based on the style of Clarice Cliff. Well done Inaaya!								 Independence
Colleen	Yr 4 4P	Star of the Week this week has to be Colleen for independence. In History, she volunteered and beautifully read aloud the role of Boudicca's daughter! I was very proud of her.								 Independence
Brooke	Yr 5 5M	Brooke gets star of the week this week for her perseverance around her star reader test. Miss Majer was really proud of the mature attitude she had to having another go and the perseverance and dedication she has put in to improving her score.								 Perseverance
Sofya	Yr 6 6R	Sofya has written the most amazing story about evacuees. She has taken on board everything she has been taught and included in her writing. She has absolutely smashed her targets!! Well done, Sofya.								 Perseverance  Creativity
