25th September 2020

Dear Parents / Carers,

Please take the time to read the attached letter, as it includes details about some changes to our drop off and pick up arrangements that we will implement from Monday 28th September. Thank you.

School Overview up to 25/09/2020

- Attendance since the start of term is currently 95.4% (up 0.3% from last week)
- No positive tests in our school community have been reported
- In total, 3 members of staff have had precautionary tests – all 3 have had a negative result
- In addition, 4 adults have been self-isolating due to symptoms from family members – 2 have returned to work and we are waiting on a further 2 results
- No adults are currently isolating due to experiencing symptoms themselves
- 12 children (3.1%) across the school are isolating as a precaution / awaiting results of tests
- All classes are fully operational

Best Wishes

Matt Hickey
