Wyatt	YR 3 3B	Star of the week is Wyatt Grant-Andrews for independence and creativity. Wyatt has flourished this week! He has settled so well into Year 3 and is impressing everyone with his new found love for learning. He has created some fantastic work describing different prehistoric animals. Keep up the hard work, Wyatt!						 Independence  Creativity
A'Miya	YR 3 3R	Star of the week is A'Miya perseverance, independence, creativity and reflection. A'Miya has had a positive attitude to learning this week and at many times has shown great perseverance, independence and creativity. I was very impressed with how hard A'Miya worked to independently write the ending to her story - she also showed great reflection. Well done A'Miya and keep it up!						 Perseverance  Reflection  Independence  Creativity
Nishka	YR 4 4P	Star of the week is Nishka for independence and creativity. Whilst writing persuasively for our brochure in English, Nishka independently wrote beautiful sentences such as 'Fly to the land of sand' to try and persuade people to visit Egypt. Her creativity really shone through in the lessons!						 Independence  Creativity
Ashar	YR 4 4W	Star of the week is Ashar for independence. Ashar has started to attempt his maths work independently over the last week. Well done Ashar!						 Independence
Ben	Yr 5 5D	Star of the week is Ben for creativity. Ben's setting description of a volcano included all of the taught elements of descriptive writing but it was Ben's creativity in the manner he weaved it all together that made it so entertaining to read. Super writing, Ben!						 Creativity
Georgie	YR 5 5H	Star of the week is Georgie for creativity. Georgie created a fantastically detailed drawing of an erupting volcano to accompany her narrative writing.						 Creativity
Anisha	YR 6 6B	Star of the week is Anisha for creativity. I really enjoyed reading Anisha's poem inspired by the character of Mr Roach from Cogheart which showcased her understanding of rhythm and rhyme.						 Creativity
Eric	YR 6 6R	Star of the week Eric for creativity. We have just finished writing poetry about a character from the book 'Cogheart'. Eric has used his imagination and a wonderful range of vocabulary to describe Mr Roach. It was a joy to read.						 Creativity
