Daisy	YR 3 3B	Star of the Week is Daisy for Creativity and Independence. Daisy has wowed me this week with her writing! She is challenging herself to use new and exciting vocabulary. She is independently using words that she has come across in books and stories read to her to make her writing incredibly descriptive.
Nina	YR 3 3R	Star of the Week is Nina for Creativity. Nina showed great enthusiasm when brainstorming adjectives to describe the spooky Wild Woods! I can't wait to read her setting description!
Aariz	YR 4 4P	Star of the Week is Aariz for Independence. Aariz has made a fantastic start to 2024 with his writing. I've been so impressed by his effort to independently think of ideas in class. He has started to use what has been shared to inspire him in his own writing. Well done Aariz for showing such independence!
Aadhya	YR 4 4W	Star of the week is Aadhya for Teamwork for always willing to help her peers with their learning.
Ranvika	Yr 5 5D	Star of the Week is Ranvika for Perseverance. Ranvika has been persevering to regain her strength and movement after a difficult illness and she has been in hospital in India for many weeks now. You are showing great strength, bravery and determination. We miss you Ranvika and hope you will be able to return soon.
Max	YR 5 5H	Star of the Week is Max for Independence, Perseverance and Teamwork. Max has worked hard to complete more work independently this week, he has shown perseverance with giving things a go, even if he is finding concepts tricky and is beginning to work well with more of his peers.
Muhammad	YR 6 6B	Star of the Week is Muhammad for Independence. Muhammad is always one of the first people ready to listen and one of the first people ready to start his learning which doesn't just benefit himself but others around him.
Thea and Eddie	YR 6 6R	Stars of the Weeks are Thea and Eddie for Creativity. This week for homework, they both decided to make their own models of an air-raid shelter. This allowed them to show off their creativity and they impressed the class with the details that they included.
