

Social Story: Meeting My New Teacher

On Monday, it will be Moving Up Morning!

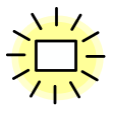

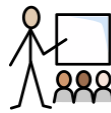

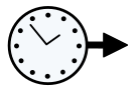

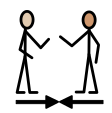

That means I will visit my classroom.

I will go with my teacher and friends.

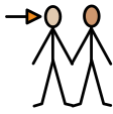

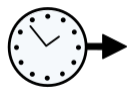

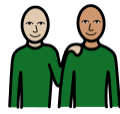

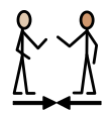

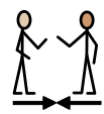

We will walk together and stay with our group.

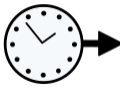

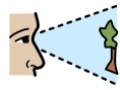

When I get to the new class, I will meet my new teacher.

They will be friendly and excited to meet me!

 I  will  see  the classroom.

 It  might  look  a  bit  different  from  this year,  and  that's okay.  Although  some things  will  look  the same.

 There  will  be  new things  to  learn  and  fun  activities to do.

 I  might  sit  on  the  or  at  a desk

 I  will  listen  carefully,  follow  instructions,  and  try  my best.

 There  might  be  some  new  routines or expectations.

 That's  okay—I  will  learn  them  step  by  step  with  help from  my  teacher.

 It's  okay  to feel excited,  happy, or  even  a  little nervous.

 All  my  friends  will  be  there  too,  and  we  will look after  each other.

 After  our  visit,  we  will  go back  to  our  class.

 I can  talk about  what  I  saw  and  what  I  enjoyed!
